Hi 👋, I'm James. I'm a Frontend Developer. I'm passionate about designing and building web pages that provide a great user experience, both aesthetically and functionally.

Experience

Find Mate | findmate-react.vercel.app

Full Stack - A roommate recommendation web application that applies the K-Nearest Neighbors (K-NN) algorithm using Euclidean distance to suggest users with similar personality traits and lifestyles. The matches are ranked from most to least similar and presented as a compatibility percentage.

Coway | tpccgeneral.wixsite.com/coway-one (Demo)

Designed and developed a Coway sales representative website using WiX Website Builder and its built-in CMS, allowing for easy content management and updates. The site is actively used by a large number of users and is one of several non-official sales representative websites within the Coway group.
